

The state of Indiana has a fine telephone law in effect. Please leave it alone. Don't water it down with some federal bullshit. You guys can't handle the laws you have on the books now. Don't make new ones that won't be enforced. "If it ain't broke, don't fix it"